1.0 Objective The objective of this policy is to establish clear guidelines for leave entitlements, ensuring that employees have the necessary time away from work for rest, recuperation, and personal obligations. This policy aims to promote a healthy work-life balance while ensuring seamless operational continuity and strict adherence to the applicable labor laws.

2.0 Scope• This policy applies to all full-time employees of InterraIT, a Ferrier group company, across India. • Employees are expected to manage their time off judiciously, providing sufficient notice to their First Level Manager to mitigate any impact on project timelines or team productivity. • Department heads and managers hold the primary responsibility for the fair implementation of this policy and for ensuring operational stability during team absences. • Human Resources (HR) department shall serve as the official Policy Custodian. HR will be responsible for the periodic reviews, interpretation, and maintenance of this policy to ensure ongoing compliance with the applicable labor laws and other statutory requirements. • Any exceptions or grievances regarding leave policy shall be mediated by HR to ensure equitable treatment across the organization.

3.0 Statement of PolicyInterra IT values the importance of the time off for its most valued assets - its people. This Leaves Policy will provide a structured approach to Leave Entitlements, the process to be followed and adherence to the required compliances.

3.1 Types of LeaveThe following types of leave are available: • Fixed Holidays • Privileged Leave (PL) • Borrowed Leave • Casual Leave (CL)/ Sick Leave (SL) • Maternity Leave • Paternity Leave

3.2 Leave Benefits

3.2.1 Fixed Holidays• Towards the conclusion of each calendar year, the HR department will officially publish the schedule of 10 fixed holidays for the upcoming calendar year. All full-time employees are entitled to observe these designated holidays as per the published list, allowing for proactive personal planning and ensuring alignment with the organization's/team's annual operational calendar.
